

Ladakh -- Dental Camp
2008 - 2009

Be part of a humanitarian project in the Ladakh Valley of Indian Himalayas. A one-time departure point for yak trains traveling into Central Asia, Leh is located in a small valley just north of the Indus Valley and offers spectacular mountain views and trekking. The people of Leh are primarily of Tibetan descent.

Working in partnership with the dZi foundation and the Ladakhi Lions Club, we will set up a field dental clinic to provide first time dental care to children throughout the Ladakh valley. Outside the clinic, volunteers have the chance to get to know the local people and take in rural life in the countryside. Volunteers work in the clinic for 6 days, after which the journey continues through India with sightseeing in Ladakh, Delhi, and Agra to see the Taj Mahal.
